MR. SPEAKER.—Let us hear your Leader.

KARNATAKA MINISTERS SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES (SECOND AMENDMENT) BILL, 1979.

Motion to consider

SRI D. DEVARAJ URS (Chief Minister).—Sir I beg to move. that the Karnataka Ministers Salaries and Allowances (Second Amendment) Bill, 1978 be taken in to consideration.

The Question proposed

Sir, this is a very simple Bill. There are only two points here: (i) There is an amendment to section 12 of the Act. According to the amendment for the words "seventy five paise", the words "one rupee" has been substituted. The is an amendment to cover up the increased petrol cost. (ii) Then. we have inserted new section 13A which says: "(1) A Minister, Minister of State or Deputy Minister shall, during the term of his office, be entitled to an advance exceeding rupees eighty thousand for any of the following purposes not namely.

(a) Construction of a new house (including acquisition of a suitable plot of land for the purpose) anywhere in the State;

(b) Purchase of a ready built house anywhere in the State;

(c) repairs to house owned by him anywhere in the State including extension of enlargement thereto;

(d) to redeem a non-Government loan or loans already drawn to purchase a ready built house or to construct a house on a site possessed by him anywhere in the State.

*Bills are appended.
